Force Global offers the complete range of ROPEX components, consumables, and RES controllers to support your existing equipment repairs, upgrades, and new system development.

We provide leading German engineered heat-sealing technology using closed-loop resistance control. This allows our customers the many benefits of sensorless, temperature controlled heat-sealing and enables manipulation of heat sealable materials per your requirement.

ROPEX and RESISTRON are Registered Trademarks of ROPEX Industrie-Elektronik GmbH, Germany.
